AUGUSTA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
cordially invite the general public, family historians, and genealogists to attend

“Following Footprints is Fun!”
An all-day beginner’s workshop on how to search for your ancestors.

Topics:
Learn more about how to get started in genealogy. Once you’ve found family records, how can you: Stay organized; Use Genealogical Charts, Census Records, Vital Records and Military Records? Learn ways that computers & the Internet can help. And more about using the Adamson Library and other local genealogical resources.

Registration Fees:
For AGS member………$35
Non-AGS member………$40
Note: Registration fee includes box lunch & genealogical “how-to” book
Registrations must be received by Thursday, Feb. 1, 2020 to guarantee lunch and book.

Please clip & mail with check to: AGS, P.O. Box 3743, Augusta, GA 30914-3743
(One form per person, please PRINT. Copy as necessary. Checks can be for total number attending.)
NAME: ____________________________________________ Phone:
ADDRESS: _______________________________________

AMT. ENCLOSED: $______ Member of AGS ($35) $______ Non-member* of AGS ($40)
EMAIL: ___________________________________________ (To receive confirmation)

(Be sure to bring a wrap and perhaps even a cushion for comfort.)